THE

YELLOW

JACKET

Dedication

To MRS. DELLA R. WHITTINGTON whose spiritual guidance, thoughtful care and sympathetic understanding as a teacher in our early lives, whose sacrifices, loyalty and devotion as a member of the school community and whose distinguished and untiring service as a civic worker have endeared her to the hearts of two generations of Washingtonians, we dedicate our yearbook.

Foreword

In compiling this yearbook we have attempted to show our school at work and at play. We hope, too, that it will be a constant reminder of those memorable days of our senior year.

We are sincerely grateful to all who have helped in any way to make this effort a success.

To The Faculty

We know how fully you have realized that our strongest assets in life would be the education received and the habits and principles formed while under your guidance. We feel that you certainly put forth every effort within your power to make well-trained boys and girls out of the raw material within your hands. How well you have succeeded, of course, only the future can determine. But we express our gratitude to you for all that you have so cheerfully done, and tried to do, for each one of us, and trust that the years to come may demonstrate to your satisfaction, as well as to our own, that your labor was not in vain.

Alma Mater

By Albert E. Williams

Hail to our school, it is the finest in our dear land,
We'll be ever true and for her always we'll take our stand
And when our work and play here must end,
We'll carry the banner onward with us.
Because we will for ever love thee our dear ole P. S. Jones High School.
We look to thee to be for ever our constant guide.
For P. S. Jones High School our hearts will always swell with pride.
